OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

No Flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With Stars to Union ... true!
...
Which ... the ...

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 24, 186[illegible]

An Outside View

While the great conflict between freedom and slavery, union and disunion is being waged upon American soil, the world, not always dispassionate but ... always ... looks on and pronounces judgment. It is gratifying to our cause, and to those who have it at heart, to know that good men everywhere are massed upon our side; to feel that the great heart of christendom throbs in sympathy with our national unity, and that civilization turns from the death throes of slavery to rejoice in the success of civil and religious liberty.

To day the judgment of the world is that the South must yield; that the die is cast and their cause hopeless; that while they have fought manfully and courageously, there is no hope for success. Neither does the enlightened world wish for their success. One by one those who have championed their cause fail them. Even the London Times has no heart to prophesy success, and each steamer that crosses the ocean from Europe hither brings the record that American securities are rising in the foreign exchanges, and that Confederate stock is down, down! There is no surer criterion of success than the register kept on 'change. There is no surer proof of failure than the dictum of the financial circles of Europe, and we recognize that our cause is won not less by victories achieved than by the verdict of foreign opinion given in our favor.

The hour of victory is the time for the exercise of judicious clemency. Such is the sentiment of the people to day. There is no rancor, no hate, no faltering either in the stern determination to conquer peace. The true state of American feeling is well portrayed in the following which we take from a late copy of the British Colonist, which we quote, pleased to see that our character and feeling as a Nation is so thoroughly appreciated by our Colonial neighbors:

At no time since the first Federal defeat at Bull Run has the North been more ready to make terms with the South. It is sated with war and satisfied with victory. ... shall shortly hear, despite all the peace failures, of amicable terms having been arranged between the conflicting parties to the effect ... we have not the slightest doubt. The Confederates have now everything to gain by approaching the Washington authorities. They can stay the carnage and save what property, outside the slaves, is left. Let them, however, continue obstinate, and every day will make their position worse and worse. We express the hope again that we hazarded before, that as Lincoln's first inauguration saw the civil war commence, his second may witness its final close.

The Colonist is correct, not only in its appreciation of our National sentiment but also in its view of Southern affairs. We commend its views to the consideration of all, and especially to those who would scout ideas originating with the Union press at home.

RECIPROCITY.—A few weeks prior to the adjournment of Congress the question of rescinding the reciprocity treaty effected between this country and Great Britain in 18[illegible], was under consideration by the Senate. We have not yet been informed as to the result of those deliberations. The principal features of the treaty of that year were those giving the United States the right to fish in British Colonial waters, the right to the equal use of the river St Lawrence, and, in return, permitting free and unrestricted trade in many staple products between our country and the colonies. The treaty, being but an agreement between two sovereign, independent powers, can of course be annulled by either party on giving notice to the other. Many have remarked that this treaty is in conflict with the revenue laws of the United States in that by its provisions, certain articles upon which the law requires duties to be paid are rendered exempt from customs. This treaty, further, seems to be at variance with a clause of the Federal Constitution. That instrument requires that duties and imposts shall be uniform throughout the United States. The treaty in question puts it out of the power of Congress to make uniform laws upon this subject. During the continuance of the treaty all acts passed by Congress fixing the amount of foreign customs are required to contain exceptions in regard to the trade spoken of. Some of the articles received from Canada free of duty we import also from other countries. Coming from other countries, customs are to be paid on them. The exemption by treaty of Canadian products from duties is then of course an interference with the powers of Congress and in collision with the fundamental law of the land. It seems inconsistent with the dignity and true policy of an independent Government to place itself under such restrictions.

THE THEATRE OF WAR.—Since the war began the scene of its operations has been repeatedly changed. North Carolina is now the sufferer. Sherman's magnificent army is now within that State, and ere long we shall hear of the occupation by our troops of all her strong places of defence. The possession of their railroad centres gone, the rebellious States will lie at the mercy of the National armies. Sherman is now probably at or near Goldsboro. Weldon, the point the rebels have striven so hard to defend, is within easy distance. Virginia seems likely soon to suffer from the presence of the invincible army that has borne the banner of the Union from the Ohio to the ocean and from the ocean northward to the upper regions of the Carolinas.

THE WEST.—Notwithstanding the great drains of war, the growth of the States lying in the region known as the Great West seems almost unimpeded and their progress hardly checked. Such a wonderful energy and marvelous vitality do they possess, that their onward course is hardly at all interrupted by the unusual demands made upon their people by the necessities of the war. And the most gratifying feature in all their history is found in the fervent patriotism which that part of the country constantly exhibits. The people there are unalterable in their purpose to maintain the Union. Patriotism with them is both a principle and a sentiment. They look upon the idea of national unity with a feeling of deep and rational veneration. The West is yet to be—it is even now—our country's Empire. The child of the East, it has by ... all the qualifications of the parent, and the two are fitted to go hand in hand together, giving the world an illustrious example of a country united for the purposes of National justice and National glory.

According to the British Postmaster General's report, the correspondence of the kingdom has risen from about 7[illegible],000,000 of letters in 18[illegible] (the last year preceding the introduction of penny postage) to upward of 6[illegible]0,000,000 of letters in 18[illegible]1.

AN EPOCH IN MILITARY HISTORY.—A NEW HERO.—The New York Tribune says the carrying of such a work as Fort Fisher by storm is an epoch in military history.

As the Monitor-Merrimac fight was to naval warfare, as the breaching of Pulaski by light guns at eighteen hundred yards was to casemated forts on land, so may the storming of Fort Fisher be to the newly invented earthwork defense. THE STREET IMPROVEMENTS.—This matter in which our public is greatly interested, will very likely come before the Council again this evening. Why the members of that body should do anything farther with the remonstrance that has been sent in to them, other than to ascertain the worth of it, is a question which we are not prepared to determine, unless it be that all former action in regard to proposed improvements have been, more " feeler" " of the council pulse. To accept of any recommendations contained in that remonstrance, that will strike us, the remonstrance plank street, is simply ridiculous. We know the feeling of the people in regard to this subject, and there is not a semblance of justice in the [illegible] of planking Front street. The citizens are opposed to it. Another communication on the subject was received yesterday from an old resident of East Portland, approving of what has been said heretofore as to [illegible] some suggestions for the action of the Council. The writer favors graveling, and in respect to plank, says: "The expense for a good and durable street seems to be the sticking point with those who have the cost to pay, yet no good road can ever be made without expense, and the most expensive is sometimes the cheapest in the long run. Decidedly the meanest kind of a street is planking, with three or four inch plank, and the experience of Portland, for the past eight years, should be a sufficient test of the matter." Elsewhere we give place to the communication of "A Friend to Public Improvement," containing some facts worthy of attention on the same subject.

A PRINTER ON A STRIKE.—About ten o'clock on Wednesday night the residence of a Printer in this city was made the especial object for deviltry by a half drunken loafer, such as haunt the streets day and night, to the disgust of law abiding citizens, and having made trouble in that capacity before, frightening the female inmates and creating a disturbance, his actions were reported to the Printer, who met him face to face while entering on his ruffianism, and endeavoring to enter the house. It was more than the disciple of Faust could bear, so after a short preface he stretched forth his right lever and considerably battered the form the face of that type of human clay. The form became pied after a few exclamation points were set up to fill in, and the "jour" having consigned the token abundantly washed, quitted the job. He was arraigned before Recorder Mottey, however, and plead guilty to the charge of battering the loafer's mug, but in consideration that he was defending his own family and domicil, was discharged on payment of a nominal fine. The "sore headed" individual was fined $30 and costs for his amusement, and in default was committed to jail.

PICKWICKIAN STYLE.—The readers of Pickwick Papers remember the incidents recorded of the lectures and investigations on the subject of a peculiar stone, graphically inscribed, supposed to be some great matter of antiquity. Here is another, somewhat old, handed to us with a request to publish:

The editor of an English paper was recently presented with a stone, on which was carved the following letters. The editor was informed that the stone was taken from an old building, and he was requested to solve the inscription. It read thus:

Forr	AtT
Letor	Unthe
Inta	IsAg
A	St—

Some eminent men were called to consult upon the matter, and after an immense amount of time consumed they were informed that the stone was "—For cattle to rub their tails against!"

STATEMENT.—The Commander of the steamer George S. Wright requests the publication of the following, which we cheerfully give place to, in vindication of Governor Gibbs, against the incorrect statements afloat regarding his course at Astoria:

PORTLAND, March 22d, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Dear Sir:—I understand it has been reported that Gov. Gibbs, who was the principal shipper on my recent trip from Victoria, objected to the steamer George S. Wright going to the relief of those unfortunate persons on the wreck of the Industry. The contrary is true, and the report does him great injustice, as he released me from all liability on his account in case of the loss of the steamer.

S. F. LEWIS,
Capt. of Steamer Geo. S. Wright.

MILITARY.—We are informed that Company D, First Regiment Oregon Infantry, have at last arrived at their destination Fort Walla Walla from Fort Dalles. They were obliged to make a long march in consequence of the interruption to navigation at the time of their movements. Companies A and B, First Washington Territory Infantry arrived on the evening of the 22d at Fort Dalles, from Fort Walla Walla, and will be consolidated with and designated as Company H, and that post will be the headquarters of the Territory Regiment.

BAD WEATHER AND DULL DAYS.—The weather continues very unfavorable, making it bad getting about, and as a consequence the general tone of matters and business is dull. We are without the simplest thread wherewith to weave a web of gossip, but such a state of things cannot last long, and soon we may expect a rush of matters interesting to our people.

THEATER.—There was the usual attendance at Willamette Theatre last evening, and the plays of "The Mysterious Murder" and "Cross Purposes" were finely executed, interspersed with song and dance.

Street Improvements.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I have seen and read of late, several communications respecting street improvements. The articles signed "Stranger," and the article in the Daily of yesterday headed "Street Improvements," set forth something tangible, which will no doubt lead the property holders who are most interested, to investigate more thoroughly the matter relating to street improvements.

This "Nicholson Pavement," from what information I can obtain, strikes me very favorably, and I learn from good authority that the party in San Francisco who has come to this coast for the purpose of introducing it here, has proposed to pave one block in Portland—parties owning said block to pay him what in their estimation they think it is worth. This is for the purpose of getting it introduced, and it would seem from his proposition, that he has perfect assurance of its practicability. The cost, from what information I can obtain, will not exceed the cost of cobble paving. I hope, whether the Council decides to plank or pave with cobble stones, that some of the property holders will give the party making the proposition a chance to make the experiment. It would seem from the various certificates published that there is but little or no risk in making the trial.

There is one other subject upon which I wish to say a few words in connection with making street improvements, that is the modus operandi, contained in the city charter. It has been and is now asserted by parties, both in favor and against improvements, unless they can make such as suits their fancy, and in their own way and time, that the charter deprives individuals from making their own improvements; this is not strictly true. The charter provides that property owners may go on and improve the streets and sidewalks, under the direction of the Council, at their own expense, two-thirds of the property owners making application to the Council to that effect. The Council has not, as yet, nor probably will not, debar the required number of property holders from making such improvements if they will do it before the Council orders it done. When the Council orders any street to be improved, then, under the charter, it is too late for individuals to undertake it.

Another bugbear is got up and circulated to retard improvements, which is, that the Council must estimate the cost of the improvement contemplated, assess the cost on each piece of property, and immediately collect the amount so assessed and deposit it with the City Treasurer, where it is to lay idle until the work is completed, thereby causing the different property holders to raise from one hundred to several thousand dollars—in the whole, perhaps $50,000 to $75,000. This has been told to me by several persons, who say they have read the charter and are willing to bet that such is the fact.

That so much of the Charter, fixing the estimated cost, and assessing the property therefor, I admit to be correct, but that the Council is obliged to collect the amount before any work is done, I deny. Any one that will read the 89th and 90th sections, will see that the time when it shall be collected, lays entirely with the Council. I mention these facts that the property holders may not be misled by false representation, thereby prejudicing persons against what is for their interest.

The fact of the whole matter is, that the Charter was not made for those that are always ready and willing to do what is right, but to make those do what they ought [illegible] and will not, unless forced to, and I hope it will prove to have that power.

If people would think and do what would be for the interest of the public in these matters, instead of [illegible] [illegible] for their own [illegible], there would be more public improvements done, at [illegible] less expense and talk.

The property owners have yet to learn that they cannot own property in a city like Portland, and be at no expense to improve the same.

A FRIEND TO PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.

When Sam. Brannan heard of the fall of Charleston, he got up a private celebration of his own, and fired a battery in Montgomery street. The glass destroyed by the firing was valued at twenty-five hundred dollars. Sam is a patriotic "cuss," and don't care a d— for anybody.

Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent, but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, raise so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, pain in the head, heart burn, pain in the breast-bone, sudden faintness, and costiveness.

Cure Your Cold! Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S

PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you can, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined by its intrinsic merits to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

NEWELL'S

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. The thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

Now.

Rise! for the day is passing,
And you lie dreaming on;
The others have buckled their armor,
And forth to the fight are gone;
A place in the ranks awaits you,
Each man has some part to play;
The Past and the Future are nothing
In the face of the stern To-day.

Rise from your dreams of the Future,
Of gaining some hard-fought field,
Of storming some airy fortress,
Or bidding some giant yield.
Your Future has deeds of glory,
Of honor (God grant it may!)
But your arm will never be stronger,
Or the need so great as to-day.

Rise! if the Past detains you,
Her sunshine and storms forget,
No chains so unworthy to hold you
As those of a vain regret.
Sad or bright, she is lifeless forever,
Cast her phantom arms away,
Nor look back, save to learn the lesson
Of a nobler strife To-day.

Rise! for the day is passing;
The sound that you scarcely hear
Is the enemy marching to battle—
Arise! for the foe is here!
Stay not to sharpen your weapons,
Or the hour will strike at last,
When from dreams of a coming battle
You may wake to find it past.

New York paper.

JOSH BILLINGS' REAL ESTATE AGENT.—I ken sell for eighteen hundred and thirty one dollars a gallus, a sweet and dissipative retirement, looking on the virgin banks ov the Hudson, kontaining 85 acres. The land is luxuriously divided by the hand ov natur and art into pastor and tilage, into plain and declivity, into stern abruptness and the dalliance of moss-tufted medder; streams of sparkling gladness (thick with trout) dance thru the wilderness ov buty tew the low musik ov the krikket and grasshopper. The evergreen sighs as the evening zephir flits thru its shadowy buzzum and the aspen trembles like the luv-smitten harte of a damsel. Fruits of the tropics in their golden buty melt on the bows, and the bees go heavy and sweet home to their garnering hives. The manshun iz of Parian marble, the porch is a single diamond, set with rubies and the mother of pearl; the floors are of rosewood, and the seilings are more butiful than the starry vault of heaven. Hot and cold water bubbles and squirts into every department, and nothing is wanting that poets could prefer or art portray.

The stables are worthy ov the steeds of Nimrod or the studs ov Akilles, and the henery was built expressly for the birds ov paradise; while somber in the distance, like a kave ov a hermit, glimpses are seen of the dorg house. Here poets have cum out, here panters have robbed the scene of dreamy landscapes, and here the philosopher diskovered the stun which made him the alkimist ov natur. Next northward of this thing of buty, sleeps the residence and domain ov the Duke John Smith; while southward, and nearer the spice-breathing tropicks, may be seen the baronial villy ov Earl Brown, and the Dutchess Widder Betsy Stevens. Walls of primitiff rock, laid in Roman cement, bound the estate, while upward and downward the eye catches far away the majesty and slow grander of the Hudson. As the yung morn hangs like a curtain ov silver from the blue breast of the ski, an angel may be sene each night dansing with golden tiptoes on the grene. (N. B.—This angel goes with the place.)

Diagrams kan be seen at the offiss ov the broker. Terms flattering. None but principal delt with. Title pure as the breth of a white male infant, and possession given with the lark. For a more ful deskription, read Ovid's Art of Luv, or kall (in your carriage) on Josh Billings, real estate agent.

DOCTOR'S VISITS.—It is not only for the sick man, but for the sick man's friends that the doctor comes. His presence is often as good for them as for the patient, and they long for him yet more eagerly. How we have all watched after him! What an emotion the thrill of his carriage wheels in the street, and at length at the door has made us feel. How we hang upon his word—and what a comfort we get from a smile or two, if he can vouchsafe that sunshine to lighten. Who hasn't seen the mother prying into his face, to know if there is hope for the sick infant that cannot speak, and that lies yonder, its little frame battling with fever? Ah, how she looks into his face. What thanks if there is light there—what grief and pain if he casts them down and dare not say "hope?" Or is it the house-father that is stricken. The terrified wife looks on, while the physician feels his patient's wrist, smothering her agonies, as the children have been called upon to stay their plays and their talk? Over the patient in the fever, the wife expectant, the children unconscious, the doctor stands as if he were Fate, the dispenser of life and death; he must let the patient off this time—the woman prays for his respite! One can fancy how awful the responsibility must be to a conscientious man; how cruel the feeling that he has given the wrong remedy, or that it might have been possible to do better; how harassing the sympathy with survivors, if the case is unfortunate—how great the delight of victory!—Thackeray.

REVOLUTIONARY PATRIOTS.—Out of the twelve Revolutionary patriots living on the 1st of January, 1863, but five survived to welcome the New Year. Lemuel Cook resides at Clarendon, N. Y., and does not know his age; Samuel Dowing resides at Edinburg, Saratoga county, N. Y., and is 98 years old; William Hutchins resides at Penobscot, Me., and is 100 years old; Alexander Maroney resides at Yates, Orleans county, N. Y., and is 91 years old; James Barham lives in Missouri, and is 100 years old. So of these five veterans, New York has three. Doubtless, in another year or two, all of them will have departed; but a new generation of patriots, the veterans of this war, will take their places in the hearts of their countrymen.

HOW SHERIDAN GOT HIS COMMAND.—It is related that when things were working so badly in the Shenandoah Valley, Secretary Stanton applied to General Grant for a remedy. "Send me," says the Secretary, "the very best man you have got in the army." Grant replied by sending Phil. Sheridan, saying, "There isn't much of him, but he's the man you want." It is said that the Secretary looked somewhat askance at the slight and youthful figure standing before him; but he set him at work, and now he is convinced that Grant knew his man.

A Connecticut man has invented a watch which is simpler in its mechanism than ordinary watches, and will run 378 days with once winding.

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN

DOUBLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN TURBINE HAS [illegible] over all other Wheels, both Turbines and Overshot.

It has competed successfully with every variety of Wheel, and has [illegible].

This Wheel has been in use nearly Three Years in the States and HAS NEVER MADE A FAILURE.

It is CHEAPER than an Overshot, MORE DURABLE, and will YIELD A HIGHER PER CENT. OF POWER from the same quantity of water. We have introduced [illegible] in this State. They are not all in operation yet, [illegible]. The following testimonial is from an old and experienced Millwright, well known in this State:

Westport, Clatsop Co., Oregon,
Nov. 19th, 1864.

Messrs. LEFFEL & MYERS—Dear Sirs: We have plenty of water on which our DOUBLE TURBINE is in successful operation. We are satisfied that your Wheel is [illegible] equal, if not superior to the Overshot. With the same water that the Overshot uses we can do more work with the Turbine than with the Overshot. I have tried many Wheels which were claimed to be superior to the Overshot, but yours is the first I have found. I have no hesitation in recommending the American Double Turbine as the most efficient economizer of water in our knowledge.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report of the San Francisco MECHANICS' INSTITUTE INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864.

THE ATTENTION OF THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY is again called to the OLD GREENBACK CASE!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR since December 17th, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH; since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

Messrs. Tilton & McFarland,

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 17th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "Safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe with what is left of the papers and you will see that it is not strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we visited McKenna & Hardy, just opening their safe TILTON & McFARLAND'S make, and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition,

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that the [illegible] amount [illegible] Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar, such as lard, pork, etc. Their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, [illegible] there was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
